DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 10 requires for the second depth to equal zero inches; however, claim 1 calls for the second depth to overlie the utility line, thus this is not possible how could it be zero and at the same time overlie it.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1,2,4,9,18-21, 24-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Iacocca et al. (US 5120164).

Iacocca et al. disclose a bedding for a utility line (28) comprising: an elongate trench formed in the earth (see col. 3 lines 30+, Fig. 5); a filter fabric wrap (27) lining a lengthwise segment of the trench having a select length; a first select depth of porous particulate material resting on a trench bottom underlying a utility line and supporting the utility line in the lengthwise segment; and a second select depth of porous particulate material overlying the utility pipe in the lengthwise segment; the select length of the lengthwise segment, the first select depth and the second select depth being selected to store a select volume of water.

5. Claims 1-4,9,18-21, 24-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Repka (US 5495696).

Repka discloses a bedding for a utility line (5) comprising: an elongate trench formed in the earth (see Fig. 1); a filter fabric wrap (4) lining a lengthwise segment of the trench having a select length; a first select depth of porous particulate material (3) resting on a trench bottom underlying a utility line and supporting the utility line in the lengthwise segment; and a second select depth of porous particulate material (3) overlying the utility pipe in the lengthwise segment; the select length of the lengthwise segment, the first select depth and the second select depth being selected to store a select volume of water. Drainage well (18). Conduit (2) providing communication with source of water (surface water from rainfall) to the trench.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 11-17 are allowed.

7. Claims 5-8, 22, 23 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 11, 18 and 25 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
